In the initial Skype session I usually take about 10-15 minutes to feel your resonance and wounds. This is the time you can share your story and ask questions. Then we move into what needs to be addressed as I want to make the best use of your time. I work with spirit and usually it's a combination between spirits and my guidance. If they really want to share something strongly I move out the way and close my eyes so they can come through. There is no particular being that comes through as they refer to themselves as 'We'. I call them my 'Inner Kin'. They are here to be of service. The energy is always benevolent. Feel free to record the session and share absolutely anything, no matter how strange, traumatic or far out it sounds. There is no judgement in how far your vision or experience goes. Inner journey work is possible through Skype as long as you can find a comfortable position to lean back and keep the screen supported.

At the end of the session I recommend you take some time out, rest, walk, take a bath, whatever relaxes you and just be. Writing in your journal if you have one is also very helpful to your inner progress. I am available after the session via email for a week if you have any questions regarding what I have given as guidance or if you need support (this is at no cost). I just want to make sure you are ok. What you may want from the session may be different from what spirit and my intuition might say you need. E.g. many people want to dive into something without a parachute or safety net and spirit will indicate to me that certain things need to be earthed and practiced to bring out the best benefits before diving deep and restoring balance.

The Skype session is for an hour @ $85 Australian unless otherwise stated. Please find me on Skype under my name 'Odette Nightsky' a week before the session and send a contact request. Payment is to be made through the contact page donation button on my website. I am located in Australia (NSW time) When we have agreed on a time and date, your payment through PayPal confirms your session and it stays there till the session is over (Just in case of Murphy's law and if you cannot attend due to an emergency we can reschedule). It's important that you update your Skype account and be in a place that is close to the Wi-Fi connection for the best reception. Alternatively we can do FaceTime@ shamansunlimited@hotmail.com or 0438239127

I look forward to being of service
Blessings Odette
